All kinds of eyes come under our observation. Defective eyes are often not different in appearance outwardly than perfect eyes. Defective eyes may even SEE just as well as those that are perfect, but sooner or later the defect will manifest itself in some way.

You probably won't come to us at nature's first warning, you may not even recognize the fact that your eyes are the real seat of the trouble until they have been carefully tested.

THE FEMALE DUELLISTS—Justice Johnstone yesterday fined M'Indy fifteen dollars for slapping a carving fork into the anatomy of Mattie Fulk-erson in a most irritating way. She produced the money, paid out and went home. Mattie was then placed on trial for conducting an artillery charge in M'Indy's direction after having received her flogging with the fork. Her story was that the shooting occurred sometime afterward when she was going down the street. She said as she came quite close to M'Indy and having a fear that the assault with the fork or something else might be renewed she decided to bluff the enemy with a shot in the air. The bluff went all right so
